Jonathan S. McCardle, Esq.

Jonathan, a graduate of Siena College and Albany Law School of Union University, joined Featherstonhaugh, Wiley & Clyne, LLP in 2012. He maintains his focus on Governmental Relations, Administrative Law, Civil Litigation and General Business Law.

As a registered lobbyist Jonathan has represented a broad range of clients and is co-author, along with Elizabeth K. Clyne, of the New York Chapter of "Lobbying, PACs and Campaign Finance". As an attorney, Jonathan is a skilled courtroom and appellate advocate who has represented clients before the United States Court of Appeals and other tribunals across New York State. His legal practice also includes procurement bid protests before the State of New York and various federal agencies.

Jonathan is also a founding board member and current Vice President of the New York Chapter of Folds of Honor. Jonathan was recognized by City & State Magazine as a 2016 "40 Under 40 Rising Star in Albany" and by the Albany Times Union as part of the next "emerging class of young lobbyists".
